

Challenge Brief/ Global Citizens

Engage! Learning | Learner Resources

Why are so many people interested in coming to America? What is it about our country and our government that makes people want to move to our country? Why does freedom matter? People want to become citizens of the United States because of the freedoms they can have. Freedom comes at a price.

America needs you! Our next generation of leaders must understand the importance of patriotism, integrity, and honor, of service, both military and public. Understanding our civic participation, responsibilities, and our role as engaged citizens of the United States of America is now more important than ever.

Driving Question: As an engaged citizen how can you exercise your civic participation to make your home, school, community, state, and world a better place?

6.13A: I can describe roles and responsibilities of citizens in various contemporary societies, including the United States.

6.14A: I can explain the duty of civic participation in societies with representative governments.

Project Requirements:

1. Each team member must choose 1 activity from each category on the Bingo card.
2. Each team member must document in some fashion each of their civic participation activities.
3. Each team member will compile a video, a slide presentation, a poster collage, etc. of the activities performed.

The civic participation activities must be initialed or signed by the recipient of the action.
